

Geography is Everywhere

Additional Wider Reading to Inspire and Challenge

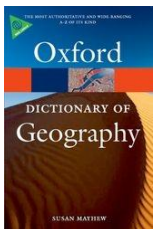

1. Prisoners of Geography, Worth Dying for - The Power and Politics of Flags, Divided, Why we're living in an age of walls – Tim Marshall
2. The Geography of Nowhere – James Howard Kunstler
3. Merchants of Doubt – Naomi Oreskes
4. No one is too small to make a difference – Greta Thunberg
5. Losing Earth – Nathaniel Rich

These are all very powerful reads and very thought provoking.

Geographers know their way around the world. Try and know the continents, major mountain ranges, rivers, oceans and major capitals. Have a look at a good atlas of which there are many – consider ones which have additional information and graphics about countries. A modern alternative is Google Earth. Hopefully, you will be quite happy spending time looking at either of these.

Geography Dictionary – Sounds sad but a great reference book

- Oxford – Dictionary of Geography

Social Media - Twitter – Follow geographically related sites/organisations via social media or simply have the App downloaded on to your smart phone.

- Geographical Association
- Royal Geographic Association
- The Guardian
- The Independent
- The Times
- The Economist
- BBC
- Channel 4 News
- USGS
- Iain Stewart

You could read articles, watch video clips and consider what you think about them. Do you agree with them or disagree?
