

Spotlight on English Language

Resources to help you to prepare for study at A-Level. Here also we show a selection of library stock. You can borrow titles using your student ID card.

Spotlight on English Language – Before you start – no. 1

Click on the images

Listen to 'Word of Mouth' with Michael Rosen. This Radio 4 programme on BBC iplayer has an archive of over 100 half-hour episodes about English language issues.

Watch 'The Word on Language and Grammar' with Anne Curzan : this is a series of short clips from an American linguist about language issues.

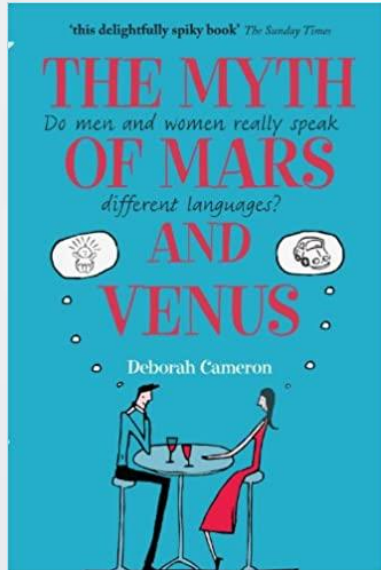

Mind your language

The editors of the Guardian style guide write about language usage and abuse

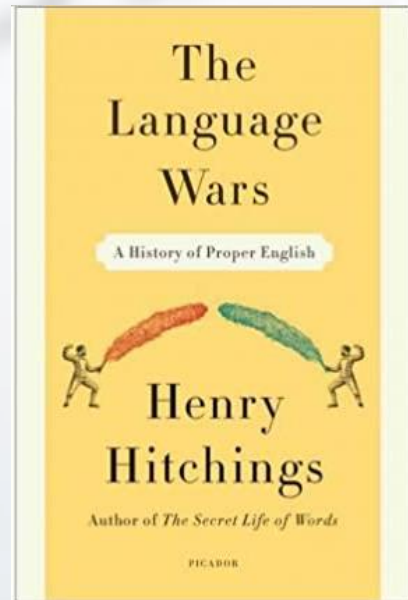

Read some articles about language issues from The Guardian 'Mind Your Language' website.

Spotlight on English Language – Before you start – no. 2

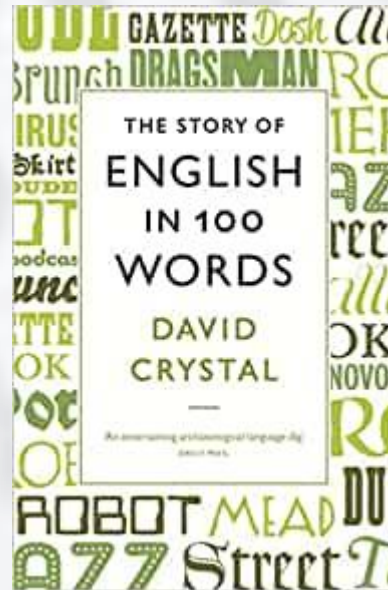

Here are some suggestions from English staff if you want to do some wider summer reading.

ISBN-13: 978-0199550999

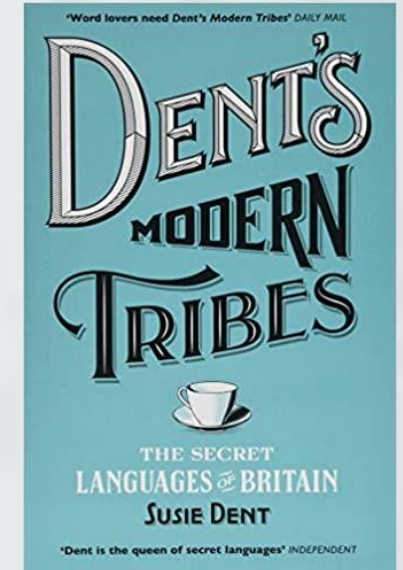

ISBN-13: 9781848542099

ISBN-13: 978-1846684289

ISBN-13: 978-0199679171

ISBN-13: 978-1473623897

Spotlight on English Language – Before you start – no.3

Click on the images

Language and Technology

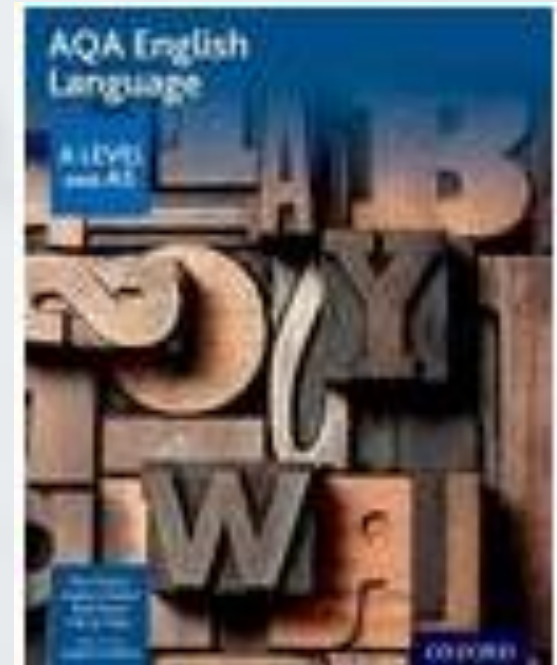

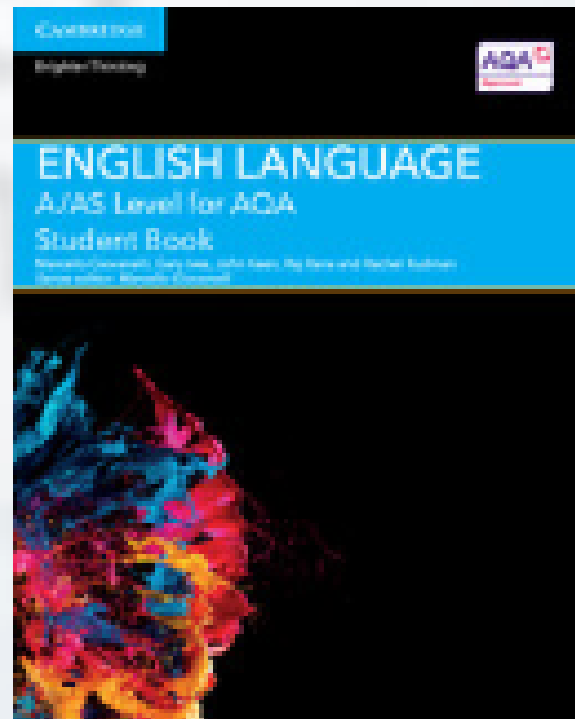

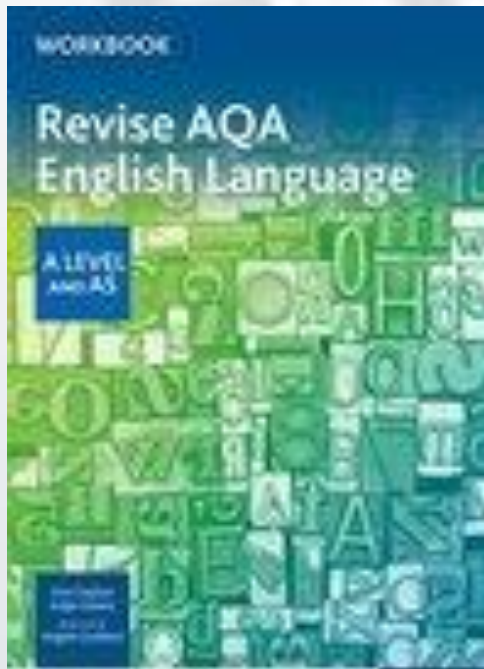

Watch closely the 20-minute film 'English 3.0' about how new technologies are changing the ways people use language.

Professor Patricia Kohl on the Linguistic Genius of Babies (14 min TED talk)

Spotlight on English Language

In the library we hold copies of the textbook and revision guides where available.

Spotlight on English Language

Library books to help with language investigation and for 'reading around' the subject.

