General Information

This is an exciting course if you are interested in following a career in the fast developing Travel & Tourism industry.

A student-centred approach encourages the development of independent learning, time management and organisational skills. Practical work will include modules relating to customer service, event management, a ctivity holidays and a detailed consideration of the travel and tourism industry.

The single course leads to an A level equivalent over two years. The double course leads to two A Levels equivalent in two years.

Previous students have been successful in applying for degrees in Travel and Tourism Management and Marketing - amongst many others. A number of students have also succeeded in gaining employment in the Travel & Tourism industry.

Entry requirements

It is strongly recommended that you should have at least a grade 4 at GCSE English. You should also meet the general college entry requirements for advanced level study. Please see the current Prospectus - Advanced Programmes, Entry Requirements.

In this subject, particular skills and aptitudes will be required, many of which will be demonstrated by students' GCSE profiles.

Entry requirements and subject content might be changed in light of curriculum reform.
